

Lightweight CAMP STUFF for packing (Summer, weekend+-)

first camp rule of thumb - only label what you want returned :)

Clothing

1 Pants (not cotton/jeans), zip-off is best, and you can skip a pair of shorts
2 shorts
3 Socks
1 Sweatshirt (not cotton)
3 T-shirts (tech-wear, not cotton)
3 Underwear
Ball cap
Warm Hat (even in summer)
Rainproof wind-breaker, rain-pants
Synthetic or wool Long john top and bottoms (these will be worn for sleeping; evenings; and for cold days. NO COTTON.)
Swim suit
Sunglasses
Warm jacket
Trail runners(waterproof) or running shoes - hiking boots aren't required, and heavy
Lightweight camp shoes or sandals

Sleeping

Sleeping bag (lightweight summer bag - these are usually <3lbs at the most)
Foam pad (not self inflating, due to weight)

Toiletries, etc

Deodorant (travel size)
Flashlight with new batteries
Sunscreen (travel size)
Toothbrush & toothpaste (travel sized)
4 Plastic grocery bags (for wet stuff on Sunday)
Small towel (can double as a wash cloth) travel soap
Compass
Pocket knife
Whistle
Small 1st Aid kit, with bandaids
Personal medication if required (Please tell the leaders if sending anything)
Mess kit - check with Scouter if mess kit is required

Optional or Suggested

Cards / small game
Book
Small Bed Critter
Camera

DO NOT BRING

Candies, snacks or goodies
Electronic devices
Pillow - putting clothes etc in the sleeping bag bag should suffice

NOTE: For the old guys/girls, I'd gladly lug a self-inflating mattress pad vs the foam pad, but I've used the pads as a scout too..
